Columbus, O., June 25.—The Republican convention re-convened at the auditorium here at 10 o'clock. The great hall was packed. The band serenaded Senators Foraker and Hanna and others at their respective hotels en route to the hall and then entertained the sweltering crowd till Temporary Chairman Foraker rapped for order. The senator was given another ovation as he arose and took the gavel. Then the committees were called for reports. The committee on credentials presented a report signed by 20 of its 21 members in favor of the delegation known as "the Hanna delegates" from Fayette county. The report was adopted and the only Daugherty man on the committee offered no minority report as was generally expected. The committee on permanent organization then reported that it had selected Senator Hanna as permanent chairman and continued the rest of the temporary organization. Adopted.

When Senator Foraker introduced Senator Hanna as the permanent chairman there was a great demonstration. Senator Foraker introduced his colleague as the man "who knew his business and how to attend to it." Chairman Hanna returned his thanks for the honor and then stated that

GEORGE KILBON NASH.

Senator Foraker had already sounded the keynote and would continue to do so in the campaign when all Republicans in Ohio would be with him to a man. He eulogized Foraker's speech and his record in the senate and said all the people in Ohio were for his reelection except the Democrats. He insisted that the coming contest in Ohio was one of a national character and on national issues. It was the most important period for the support and encouragement of the national administration.

Tariff and Experiments.

Senator Hanna then reviewed the first administration of President McKinley and insisted that his second administration was still more important for the domestic, financial and foreign affairs of the country. He discussed the financial issues at length and said that the country demands a continuance of confidence in the government in order to have continued prosperity. He appealed to the Ohio

Republicans to do away with all factional differences and stand by the president and a Republican congress. In discussing the tariff, he said this was no time for experiments in that line or any other. This was no time for financial, industrial or other disturbances. He favored personal liberty so long as it did not interfere with the public good and made no other allusion to state affairs. Senator Hanna was loudly applauded as he proceeded and also when he concluded.

Ex-Lieutenant Governor Asa W. Jones presented the report on rules and order of business which made no unusual changes and was adopted. General Charles W. Grosvenor presented the report of the committee on resolutions, which was adopted with a whirl. When General Grosvenor read the platform various plans were applauded, notably the one endorsing Foraker for a second term as senator.

Nomination of Nash.

Hon. Henry C. Taylor, who presented the name of George K. Nash to the convention two years ago for governor then presented his name for renomination, and he was re-nominated by acclamation unanimously.

Ex-Governor Charles Foster, Lieutenant Governor John A. Caldwell and Captain Aaron Waggoner were appointed as a committee to escort Governor Nash to the hall. Governor Nash was received with a rousing ovation.

In accepting the nomination, Governor Nash stated, after returning his thanks, that Senators Foraker and Hanna had ably discussed national issues and he would consider state affairs only. He said that since James E. Campbell was succeeded by McKinley as governor in January, 1892, the Republicans had been in continuous power for a decade in Ohio. He reviewed the record of the past 10 years and especially that of the past two years, and held that the showing was such that even their Democratic opponents could find no fault with it. He showed that at the end of the last fiscal year Ohio had $1,151,218 in the treasury, and in 1890 there was a deficiency of $113,000. He commended the Republican acts of the various legislatures and recommended various changes in the taxation laws.

Other Nominations.

When nominations for lieutenant governor were called for there were repeated calls for Caldwell. Ex-Representative Harry Hoffheimer of Cincinnati presented the name of State Senator Carl L. Nippert of Hamilton county, and he was nominated without opposition by acclamation.

For the nomination of judge of the supreme court, the name of J. J. Price was presented by S. S. Wheeler; of William B. Crew, by Frank A. Durbin, and of Thaddeus A. Minshall (the incumbent) by Albert Douglass. The convention was convulsed by the humorous speech of W. D. Davies, in seconding the nomination of Price. The first ballot resulted: Price, 409; Crew 317½; Minshall, 352½. Necessary to nominate 545, no nomination. The second ballot resulted as follows: Price, 642; Crew, 279; Minshall 167. The nomination of Price was made unanimous.

John M. Killetts presented the name of John M. Sheets for attorney general and he was nominated for a second term without opposition.

For the nomination for clerk of the supreme court, the name of Newton M. Miller was presented by George W. Carpenter; of Alva B. Hall, by J. E. Mackey; of A. C. Critchfield, by Judge M. L. Smyser, and of Lawson E. Emerson by Hon D. A. Hollingsworth. The first ballot resulted as follows: Miller 322 1-3; Hall, 33; Critchfield, 171 1-3; Emerson 561 1-3. The nomination of Emerson was made unanimous.

Congressman R. W. Taylor presented the name of Isaac B. Cameron for state treasurer, and he was nominated without opposition. State Senator Seiber presented the name of W. G. Johnson for member of the state board of public works and he was renominated without opposition.

Resolutions were adopted extending sympathy to Secretary Hay in his bereavement and adopting the eagle for the emblem of the party. At 1:10 p. m. the convention adjourned.

THE PLATFORM.

Principles of the Party as Outlined by the Convention.

The convention adopted the following platform, as reported by the committee on resolutions:

The Republicans of Ohio, through their representatives in state convention assembled, reaffirm the principles set forth by the last national Republican convention at Philadelphia, and with supreme satisfaction in its past record, and implicit trust in its ability to meet every public problem, pledge their loyal and undivided support to the Republican party and its candidates throughout this campaign.

The Republican party by its magnificent achievements has added lustre to American history, and under its administration of national affairs the United States has become a world power of the first class. Industry has revived, capital and labor are employed, poverty has succeeded want, the cry of the hungry and unemployed is no longer heard, but from every quarter comes the demand for workmen at the highest wages ever paid to American labor. Our export trade has increased until it leads the world, approximating for the present year $1,500,000,000.

The Republican party, by its monetary legislation, has established the gold standard, thereby removing the menace of an inflated currency, and its attendant repudiation of financial obligations, public and private, and raised our credit above that of any other nation. A Republican congress has relieved the people by a reduction in direct taxation, approximating $40,000,000, and our national treasury shows a growing surplus has succeeded a Democratic deficit.

The principle of protection has achieved its most signal triumph in the results of the Dingley tariff law. It has given us marked prosperity at home, and a rapidly growing export trade, which are the envy of the world. The Republican tariff policy has made the farmer and laborer more prosperous than ever, and no legislation should be permitted which will imperil the interests of either. Tariff schedules which will protect American labor against the low wages paid foreign labor must be maintained. We reaffirm our declarations heretofore made by the Republican party in favor of reciprocity, and urge the making of such additional treaties, based on the protective principle, as will further extend our commerce.

Merchant Marine.

We favor the further strengthening of our navy, and such legislation as will restore our merchant marine to pre-eminence upon the sea, so that our growing foreign trade may be carried in American-built vessels, manned by American sailors, under the American flag.

We urge the speedy construction of an American ship canal through the American isthmus as an imperative public need.

We recognize the right of both labor and capital to combine when such combinations are wisely administered for the general good, but combinations which create monopolies to control prices or limit production, are an evil which must be met by effective legislation, vigorously enforced. The only legislation, national or in Ohio, on this subject has been enacted by the Republican party, and that party can be safely trusted to deal with this problem.

The near expiration, by limitation, of the Chinese exclusion act calls for a renewal of the wise provisions by which the unrestricted immigration of Chinese into this country has been prevented, and we ask that congress and the treaty-making power enact just, humane and reasonable laws and treaties for the continued protection of American labor.

The soldiers and sailors of the United States for their valor and suffering in defense of their country deserve its unceasing gratitude. A grateful country will ever hold them in deep and affectionate remembrance, and will care for their widows and their orphans. The Republican party has enacted the most generous pension legislation ever known, and we ask for its most liberal application, so that no needy or deserving veteran may suffer want. The law giving to veterans preference in public employment should be strictly enforced.

The right of franchise is vouchsafed to every American citizen by the federal constitution. We denounce, as no less criminal than the crime of treason, any attempt to deprive of their inalienable rights millions of our fellow citizens in certain states of the Union. We therefore call upon our senators and representatives in congress for such legislation as shall secure the strict enforcement of constitutional measures guaranteeing to every citizen the right of franchise, without distinction as to race, color, or previous condition of servitude, and we demand that representation in congress and in the electoral college shall be based on the actual voting population, as provided in the constitution, proportionate reduction being made for any state in which the right of suffrage is denied, except for crime.

All criminals should be punished by due process of law, and we denounce the crime of lynching as a foul blot upon civilization.

A war forced upon our country was waged to a successful close in 100 days, and Spain driven forever from the western hemisphere. Our victory imposed responsibilities and obligations greater than any which have arisen in a generation. The blessings of liberty have been extended to millions of human beings. The Monroe doctrine has been firmly upheld. The Republican principle that congress has power to govern our new possessions according to the needs of their own people and in the interest of the people of the United States, and the policy of the Republican administration in dealing with the territory which has come to us as a result of the Spanish war, have been justified and sustained by the final decision of the supreme court. The momentous determination that the Republic is a nation with the powers of a nation in acquiring and governing territory has been fixed by the supreme court decision, upholding the Foraker law, a measure framed by our senior senator, enacted by a Republican congress, and approved by a Republican president.

The prudent and successful management of American interests in China by President McKinley has added new glory to American arms and American diplomacy. The petition of the Chinese people that our soldiers be kept in Peking to protect that portion of the city assigned to their charge is a tribute to the army of a foreign nation without parallel in history.

Insular Problems.

The nation's pledge to the island of Cuba is being faithfully kept, insuring freedom and independence to her people. Order has been maintained, the interests of the United States conserved, and the island today is enjoying more national prosperity than ever before. We congratulate the people of Cuba upon wise and conservative action in favor of stable government. Porto Rico is flourishing beyond all her former experiences. Hawaii's entrance into full territorial relations with the United States government has been marked by the most marvellous progress known in the history of those islands. In the Philippine Islands a wicked insurrection has been suppressed, the chief leaders have taken the oath of allegiance, and the anticipated large increase in our regular army has been rendered unnecessary. Civil government, contemplating the largest practicable degree of home rule, has succeeded military control. The American educational system has followed the flag into these islands, and personal freedom, with an equality of rights heretofore to them unknown, is secured to every inhabitant.

All these beneficent results have been accomplished by the enactment into law of Republican principles, and we congratulate President McKinley upon his wise, patriotic and brilliant administration. Facing unforeseen and grave responsibilities, he has met them prudently, bravely and successfully, and we assure to him the unqualified approbation of the Republicans of Ohio.

Democratic administration has always resulted disastrously whenever that party has been in power in the state or nation, and Democratic success in Ohio this year would be a menace to our great prosperity and our national progress.

The administration of state affairs by Governor George K. Nash has been wise, able, prudent, honest and economical. He has solved all questions wisely and well, and has been his honor to his high office. His administration merits the approval of the people, and we pledge him our best efforts for reelection in November.

We call attention to continuous Republican supremacy in Ohio for the past ten years. So satisfactory has been the administration of state affairs during that period as to put it above and beyond the criticism of our opponents.

We favor such revision of the tax laws of the state as will require all classes of property to bear their equal and just share of taxation, and we recommend the creation of such machinery for fixing and equalizing valuations as will be adequate at all times to correct error and take notice of changes in value.

During the last ten years the general assembly has increased the revenues of the state by forms of taxation other than by levies upon real and personal property. We favor further legislation in this direction, to the end that the burden of taxation upon property may be lessened, and we denounce as unjust any scheme which aims to cast the entire burden of taxation upon real estate.

Ohio has just reason to be proud of her distinguished senators, Joseph B. Foraker and Marcus A. Hanna. They are able in debate and wise in counsel. To them and to our Republican members of the house of representatives we extend our full and cordial approval.

Senator Foraker has rendered splendid and conspicuous service to our country during his term in the United States senate, and we earnestly endorse him for a second term.

To this declaration of principles, and to the candidates nominated and endorsed by this convention, we pledge our loyal support.

SOUTH AFRICAN WAR

Details of a Hand-to-Hand Encounter. Progress of Invasion.

Cape Town, June 25.—Details of the engagement between General Elliot's column and Dewet's force near Reitz, show that the British surprised the Boer convoy. The burghers fled but seeing the captors were not in strong force, they returned and charged with great determination after desperate fighting and capturing the convoy. Meanwhile Colonel DeLisle arrived with reinforcements and the fighting was renewed. The Boers lay beneath their wagons and fired volleys between the wheels, while their comrades were engaged in spanning and driving off that portion of the convoy furthest from the British. The latter pushed in among the wagons, using the bayonets freely. General DeLacey was present and personally used a rifle. The affair ended in a series of hand-to-hand encounters and fierce melees, the Boers eventually being driven off. One of General Dewet's staff officers was wounded and taken prisoner.

Discussed the Boer War.

London, June 25.—The South African war was again the subject of innumerable discussions in the house of commons. Little information was elicited except that the war continued to cost £1,250,000 weekly and that there were 1484 cases of typhoid fever among the troops during the month of April, of which number 187 proved fatal.

Boer Raiders Advancing.

Berkley East, Cape Colony, June 25.—General Fouches' two Boer commands have advanced beyond Glen Almond, which is about 10 miles southeast of Allwal North. Boer and British scouts have exchanged shots six miles hence. All the local defense forces have been mobilized.

Boer Discussed.

Cape Town, June 25.—Jacobus Botha, the member of the Cape Assembly for Allwal North, has been captured by the Boers and publicly sjamboked. In addition his house was burned. The reason for this treatment is that Botha voted in favor of the treason bill.

Plunge of an Express.

Pittsburg, June 25.—By the wrecking of train No. 23, northbound, on the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad at Monaca, 26 miles from this city, two persons are dead, three fatally injured and 40 others more or less seriously hurt. The wrecked train was composed of two baggage cars, two day coaches and one parlor car, in charge of Conductor F. L. Murray, and carried between 125 and 150 passengers. The train while going at a great speed, ran into an open switch and plunged down a steep embankment. Fireman W. J. Cunningham and Baggage-master Lowry Black were instantly killed.

At Boston Richard Friedman, 25, shot and killed his sister Rosa, 21, then himself. Crazy by overstudy.

STORY OF THE FLOOD.

Scenes in Stricken Section of West Virginia Depicted as Appalling.

NUMBER OF LOST NOT YET KNOWN.

Torrential Rains in the Mountains Forced Streams Out of Their Banks, Engulfing a Vast Area—The Latest.

Keystone, W. Va., June 25.—Keystone is the metropolis of the Elkhorn mining country. It has but one narrow street, and because of limited space, many houses were built on piles or walls over the Elkhorn or close up against the mountains. The town follows the meanderings of the stream for a mile.

On Friday night at 11 o'clock, the storm struck the mountain, and for six hours rain descended in torrents. At daybreak the thousands of people along the Elkhorn and its tributaries realized that a great flood was upon them, but they little suspected the disaster soon to follow. By 9 a. m. the narrow valley was a raging, seething, angry torrent, houses, barns, bridges, fences, live stock and human beings were being swept away by the mighty waters and dashed on the rocks or trees below.

At the first warning many of the inhabitants took refuge on the mountain side overlooking the town and river. More than a hundred people, however, remained in the town to look after the woman and children who did not escape early. The bridge leading to the depot was soon swept away, then the angry waters rushed through the only street in the town and hundreds were cut off from the mountain retreat.

In attempting to cross the muddy, surging waters which swept like an avalanche down this street, many lost their holds and in plain sight of friends were carried on into the river and drowned. Houses plunged and danced in the mighty stream, with screaming women and children on the roofs. Horses, cattle and other animals went down in droves and singly struggling for life.

Hundreds Missing.

Bluefield, W. Va., June 25.—There is no possible way yet to estimate the loss of life or property. Hundreds of people either are missing or are reported missing and a large number of dead bodies have been recovered. Everywhere is debris composed of wrecked homes, demolished railroad cars, broken and splintered household furniture and now and then the corpse of a victim. Railroad iron was bent by the force of the water, iron bridges resting on their pier of solid masonry withstood the strain but a moment and went down. The eddying waters ate away embankments and railroad cars laden with half a hundred tons of coal were swept to destruction. The Elkhorn and North Forge valleys were made scenes of devastation and death in a few short hours. The financial loss is unobtainable, but is estimated that it will take millions to repair the damage.

Placed at Seventy-Five.

Williamson, W. Va., June 25.—Reports from points south in the lower end of the flooded district indicate that the loss of life has been largely exaggerated. Probably not over 100 have perished and the list may not reach 75. The greatest loss is at Keystone, Vivian and Elkhorn. Not over half a dozen lives were lost in Tug River valley. On this stream the property loss is roughly estimated at a million dollars.

Houses Washed Away.

Tazewell, Va., June 25.—At Cedar Bluff, west of here, nine houses and eight outhouses were washed away, but no lives were lost as far as known. Many mill dams are gone. The town of Liberty, nine miles west, is badly damaged. The floods seemed to have embraced the whole country, extending into the eastern part of Russell and Forty-Mile road.

Welland an Irresponsible.

Leipsig, June 25.—The first criminal section of the imperial court, sitting in camera, decided not to prosecute Dietrich Welland, the man who at Bremen in March last, threw a piece of iron at Emperor William, wounding him in the cheek and who has since been pronounced by the physicians to be an epileptic, who committed the assault upon his majesty while in an irresponsible condition.

Henderson Locked On.

London, June 25.—D. B. Henderson, speaker of the United States house of representatives, and Harry White, secretary of the United States embassy here, witnessed the inspection of the yeoman of the guard of King Edward in the garden of Marlborough House.

DENR, the Senatorial snorer, is little enough and mean enough for anything he imagines might tend to further his own political interests. He tried his best to have a poor woman ousted from the post-office at New Castle, but has about given up the fight.

Those franchise looters in Philadelphia have been cornered, and it will be interesting to see how they will squirm out. Friday an offer of $3,000,000 cash was made by John Wanamaker for the street railway franchises recently given to Congressman Robert Forrederer and his associates. Wanamaker stipulates also that he will charge only three cent fares during the heavy morning and evening traffic. His offer provides that $2,500,000 of the consideration shall go to the city and be used for harbor improvements and the building of public schools. He proposes to give the franchise holders a bonus of $500,000 for the privileges "which," he says in the letter, "cost you nothing, at least nothing that can be avowed."

Mr. Wanamaker in the beginning of his communication states that it is made to prove false the Congressman's recent allegations to the effect that his original offer to the Mayor was insincere and had "a string to it."

STATE TAXES.

County Sheriffs Will Have to Pay in Over $2,700,000—Total Assessment Over $588,000,000—Mason's Share.

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 24.—The total amount of taxes to be collected in Kentucky this year by the county Sheriffs is $2,700,330.52. This is on an assessment of $588,707,480, the equalized value of taxable property in the State. The assessment as reported by County Assessors to the Auditor was $579,083,534, showing an increase by the State Board of Equalization of $9,623,946. These are the official figures as tabulated by the Secretaries of the State Board, who are putting the finishing touches to the report to the State Auditor, which report will shortly be issued.

Of the taxes to be collected the county of Jefferson will pay $616,155 74 or, nearly one-fourth of the entire amount. This is paid on an assessment of $129,716,989. The counties paying the next largest sums are Kenton, which pays $147,930.21 on an assessment of $31,143,202, and Fayette, which will pay $143,481.76 on an assessment of $30,206 687. The county of Menefee will pay into the Treasury the smallest amount, $2,413.15 on an assessment of $508,032.

Mason County will pay in $47,735.45 on an assessment of $10,049,571; Bracken $14,685.54 on an assessment of $3,091,692; Robertson $4,309.81 on an assessment of $907,329; Fleming $22,763.28 on an assessment of $4,792,271; Lewis $10,739 on an assessment of $2,260,844.

Mason County ranks eighth in Kentucky in point of assessed value of property.

Mrs. Emily Collis is visiting relatives at Maysville. Mrs. Inez Dickson, her daughter, saw her safely there and stayed a couple of days ere returning home.

Chills and fever still have a grip on Thos. J. Hefflin. Although a Catholic in creed, he is, at intervals, a Shaker by force of circumstances.

Mrs. Clint Davis, formerly Lena Roe, who has been sick three weeks up to the 23rd inst., is recovering slowly but surely.

This fine June weather keeps the farmers in high feather, plowing, hoeing, reaping, mowing, at it all together.

Prof. Geo. H. Turnipseed, with a party of friends, is enjoying a few days recreation, fishing on Kinney, "way up there in the mountains."

The question arises, "Kin he catch any fish?" Mr. Chas. Kennan, one of our most prominent and progressive citizens, visited Tom Hefflin last Sunday.

Sailor Stevens is a solumu subject in his stylish Sunday suit, surely.

Miss Mary Hefflin, daughter of Martin Hefflin, Esq., was visiting her cousin, Miss Anna Hefflin, the past week.

Hendrix Roe, son of Charles Roe, while trying Geo. Stephenson's (the inventor of the steam engine) scheme with a tea kettle, was severely scalded about the face by a sudden outburst of steam from the confined spout, narrowly escaping loss of his eyes. Dr. Ford is attending his injuries, which fortunately are not very serious.

Miss Mayme Hefflin will return home from an extended visit to Cincinnati this week, accompanied by a bevy of girl friends who will awake the echoes around the home place with merry jest and laughter for several weeks to come. Win Hord has to arouse, go out early and milk the cows; but it makes his wrist muscles strong and tight, so he can jerk a fellow out of sight, tear his clothes, black his eyes or carmine his nose, to his surprise, if he should have to fight, or lift an anvil or something light; but don't you worry, he's a-l-l r-i-g-h-t! Be careful how you think, and dance, and talk, and sing, and about, For the BULLETIN correspondent "will git ye if ye don't look out."

Professor L. C. Grimes, our popular pedagogue, took a shy at the grass and weeds in his yard Thursday with a scythe, and Charles Calvert, on whose premises he resides, inspecting the job later on, was amazed to find his horseradish plants conspicuous by their absence. Don't give way to useless regrets, Professor, "it will grow again" as Mr. Calvert sagely remarked when he had taken a second thought.

Recently a drummer, on hearing Miss Bet's dinner bell asked if there was a hotel here. On receiving a negative answer, he said it was a great oversight, as guests were seeking accommodations often. He was told that Mr. James Roe often furnished meals and lodging. As for bells, a family in this here town that hasn't a farm bell or dinner bell and doesn't let its chimneys wake the echoes at meal times isn't in the swim at all, at all.

After a torrid June day, a refreshing shower brought grateful coolness at ten minutes of eleven o'clock Thursday evening. The weather at the present writing is hot—hottentot, hottentismo, broiling, baking, burning. But remember what the poet says, "What is so rare as a day in June?" Then if ever come perfect days! John Coulter has sold lots of strawberries, and says the chickens got their share too, because they went a berrying, burying John's hopes of future profit—partially. Now, why can't these hens, who have had a profusion of toothsome fruit, of which it has been said by an enthusiast, "God Almighty could have made a better berry, but he didn't," lay some aniline hued eggs?

Stockton Ross, of genial George Sedden's store, popular purveyor of provisions, skillful salesman of shoes, socks, sacks, shirts, sugar, salt, soap, soda, cakes, candy, cheese, calico, combs, crackers, cigars, crocks, beans, butter, bacon, diamond dyes, lawn linen, tobacco, tinware, peaches, pears, plums, potatoes, oysters, oats, onions, tubs, tomatoes, has been under the weather for a few days, or on the sick list as it is generally called, but not sick enough to go off duty—pronounced by all the girls a beauty—a statement none can refute—but enough of apt alliteration artful aid—Stock is a daisy and I am—glad.

The Dickson pike bridge at "burg" was completed the middle of last week, and is truly a marvel of strength and simplicity. It is a better bridge by all odds than the old one. The citizens owe the constructors a vote of thanks for their proficiency in the art of bridge building.

Edgar Moreland, while driving Sunday night about 11 o'clock near the coal docks, was suddenly confronted by an unknown party whom he took to be a friend or acquaintance, but not relishing the conversation that quickly followed and perhaps remembering past troubles, Mr. Edgar gave his horse a lash from the whip, resulting in suddenly jerking off the buggy wheel which sent the hobo headlong to the roadway.

Didn't Marry for Money.

The Boston man, who lately married a sickly rich young woman, is happy now, for he got Dr. King's New Life Pills, which restored her to perfect health. No one is too rich or too poor to use Ar-buckles' Coffee. The famous brand is blended to suit the taste of the many—not the few. Its price is made to suit the purses of all.
 It's the finest flavored coffee (richest of any) of its kind in the world. A package of

ARBUCKLES' Famous Roasted COFFEE

will make a larger quantity of coffee than a package of any of its imitations. Therefore, although it costs a cent a pound more, it is really less expensive than other package coffees. Order Ar-where near its price.

MAYOR STALLCUP TO WED.

Maysville's Popular Chief Executive and Miss Fannie Allender to be Married This Afternoon at Foster, Ky.

Mayor W. E. Stallcup and Miss Fannie M. Allender will be married at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the home of the bride's mother at Foster, Ky., Rev. F. W. Harrop officiating. On account of the recent death of the groom's mother, the wedding will be a quiet affair.

The bride is a most estimable young lady and has made her home in Maysville many years, having been the companion of the late Mrs. Katherine Stallcup, mother of the groom. Since Mrs. Stallcup's death a month or so ago, the bride has been living with her mother at Foster.

The groom is serving his first term as Mayor of the city of Maysville, and has long been identified with the city's commercial and municipal affairs. The BULLETIN unites with a host of warm friends in congratulations and good wishes to the happy couple.

Mayor Stallcup, Rev. F. W. Harrop and Mr. John T. Smith left on the 8:50 train this morning for Foster. The bridal party will come to Maysville on the 8 o'clock train this evening and the newly-wedded will take up their residence at once at the groom's home on Forest avenue.

A CONFESSED BIGAMIST,

Is Collins the Blind Beggar, But He Says He Was Acquitted of the Charge.

George Collins, the blind beggar who, while soliciting alms, had $1,500 or $2,000 worth of money, jewelry and other plunder stowed away in his pockets and valises, was taken before Judge Wadsworth Tuesday afternoon to answer the charge of street begging and obtaining money under false pretenses. The cases were not ready for trial, and were continued until this morning at 11 o'clock.

Collins, during a talk with Judge Wadsworth, City Attorney Wood and Chief of Police Donovan, confessed that he is a bigamist, but claimed he had been tried on that charge and acquitted. He says his real name is Thomas Bishop and that he married his first wife at some point in Illinois. He says he afterwards went to Atlanta where under the name of Samuel Fleming he courted and married another woman. The fact that he had another wife became known and he was arrested and tried on the charge of bigamy. He says his two wives were present, as were also the ministers who performed the ceremonies, but he claims the jury acquitted him in fifteen minutes.

Collins, or Bishop, says he bought the watch of rare make found on him when arrested from Oskamp, the Cincinnati jeweler, and that he paid a $500 bill for it. He also claims he has sold as much as 500 pounds of silver to Oskamp at one time, but he didn't say where he got the silver.

The marriage of Mr. James Childs and Miss Regina F. Bendel takes place this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church.

The L. and N. train due at 8:30 last evening did not pull in until after 10 o'clock. The brakeman, at some station, this side of Johnson, after giving the signal to start, was unable to board the train on account of the heavy wind and rain. Some time elapsed before he was missed, and then the train had to run back and hunt him up.

It seems that Taylor, for reasons that are obvious to the most obtuse, prefers to proclaim his innocence from the protecting wing of an "Ingian" Governor to proclaiming it in a Kentucky court. Taylor at Washington, though, is open and above board in proclaiming his innocence of anything worse than a desire to benefit the people when he sells eighteen pounds of granulated sugar for $1, and nine pounds of either Arbuckle or Golden Rio and ten pounds Levering coffee for $1.

Seven Years in Bed.

"Will wonders ever cease?" inquire the friends of Mrs. S. Pease, of Lawrence, Kan. They knew she had been unable to leave her bed in seven years on account of kidney and liver trouble, nervous prostration and general debility; but, "Three bottles of Electric Bitters enabled me to walk," she writes, "and in three months I felt like a new person." Women suffering from headache, backache, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, fainting and dizzy spells will find it a priceless blessing. Try it. Satisfaction is guaranteed. Only 50c. at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drugstore.

Egg phosphate and all the popular soda water drinks at Ray's soda fountain.

Miss Mary Forman, the missionary, will deliver an address at the M. E. Church, Third street, to-morrow evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Mr. Hall Strode, formerly of this city, has been appointed manager of the Lexington office of the Wheeler & Wilson Sewing Machine Company. He entered upon his duties Monday morning.

G. W. Rogers & Co., No. 127 Market street, Maysville, is the place to get pure, straight two-stamp "guaranteed" whiskeys, brandies and gins, California wines &c. No spirits or rectified goods sold. Best $2 whisky on earth.

Members of the Christian Church of Corbin and surrounding towns have purchased a beautiful piece of land, containing five acres one mile west of Corbin, on which they will at once begin the erection of a large school building, which, when completed, will be under the control of that church.

Miss Florence Minor, who threw herself under a street car in front of the asylum grounds at Lexington Sunday afternoon and whose leg had to be amputated, is doing nicely. She is confined in the asylum hospital. Her father, Judge Minor, of Brooksville, is at the bedside of his daughter.

The subject of good roads is the most important one the people of Kentucky, or of any other State, can consider. Good roads will add immensely to the value of farming property, as it will make the market easily accessible to farm and garden products, and by increasing the facilities and comfort of life in the country, will lead to large purchases of lands.

Lexington Democrat: "Mr. C. V. Hardy, who graduated from Kentucky University this year, will leave for Maysville this (Tuesday) morning to spend a week with friends and relatives. He will then go to Cripple Creek, Col., where he will enter upon his duties as Professor of Mathematics in the High School. His salary will be $1,000 and his appointment was received on commencement day."

In affirming a case recently, taken up from Robertson County, the Court of Appeals says: "The County Judge is not liable on his bond for accepting a Sheriff's bond which was void as to the sureties therein by reason of the fact that the name of one of them was signed thereto by another without written authority, as the Judge in taking such a bond acts judicially and there is no statute imposing upon him such a liability."

Says a funny writer: "A man by the name of Moon was presented with a daughter by his wife. That was a new Moon. The old Moon was so overcome that he went off and got drunk—and that was a full Moon. When he became sober he had but 25 cents left. That was the last quarter. But when his mother-in-law met him at the door with a rolling-pin there was a total eclipse of the full Moon with seven stars visible."

Cynthiana Democrat: "Col. Tom Davis is back at the helm. The Maysville Ledger wants to know whether Weaver, the strolling barber, has been located, and if not why not. The Col. has been gone so long that it may be news to him that Taylor, the strolling ex-Governor, is not back yet either without any ifs or whys. He seems to be located, however, by the grace of Governors dead and alive. Until he gets back the Republicans need ask about nobody else."

River News.

The elegant steamer Bonanza, just off the Madison ways, is expected at Cincinnati to-day.

Keystone State and Urania due down this evening and Stanley to-night. Up to-night, the Courier.

The steamer Virginia in attempting to effect a landing in the fog at Portland, Ohio, backed into the bank and wrecked her wheel, totally disabling her. She will be taken to Cincinnati and repairs rushed to completion. The accident will cause her to lose this week's trip, but she will be ready for her next regular day, Tuesday, July 2nd.

"The flood tide out of the Tug river brought with it the most tremendous quantity of drift ever witnessed from our point of view," said Colonel Jay H. Northrup, of Louisa, on the Big Sandy river. "The swollen, rushing river bore on its bosom a mighty and almost solid mass of tens of thousands of feet of sawed lumber, trunks of great trees, fences, bridges, mills, dead horses and mules, and everything that came within the terrific sweep of the storm and avalanche of water. Hundreds of salvage wreckers were out in the Ohio as far down as Maysville when we came along, pulling in the floating lumber and other spoils of the stream. According to our laws these river salvage men can charge $2.50 per 1,000 feet for sawed lumber and 3 cents apiece for railroad ties if the original owners come to recover their property within sixty days, otherwise it is advertised and sold by those who catch it."

Advertisement for Hammocks and Fishing Rods. Includes an illustration of a hammock and a fishing rod. Text: 'CAN YOU WRITE A GOOD ADVERTISEMENT? Most people think they could if they were given an opportunity. We have frequently been complimented on the get-up of our advertisements and think we do, occasionally, produce some that are fairly attractive. Our ad man says there is room for improvement, however, and, acting on his suggestion, we propose to give all who care to compete a chance to try their hand. We have an especially fine line of Hammocks and a substantial stock of Ice Cream Freezers, for which there ought to be a great demand these hot days. The ad we had prepared for the above space consisted of less than 150 words. No doubt you could, within that limit, compose something that would prove more effective than the one we have constructed. We propose to offer three prizes for the best original advertisement sent us not later than July 1st. Put in a little enthusiasm and try as often as you please, but no one eligible for more than a single prize. Enclose each ad in envelope and mail to us or leave at our store, addressed as below. Keep well within the limit. Names of the prize-winners, together with their production, will be published in our space as soon after above date as possible, to be followed by the original. THE PRIZES will be as follows: First, the Finest Hammock in our stock, value, $3.25; second, a Fine Jointed Fishing Rod and Tackle, value, $3; third, a Lightning Freezer, value, $2. Schwab's Advice to Boys.
Charles M. Schwab, President of the United States Steel Corporation, says:
"From my long experience I am led to believe that many boys make the mistake of depending upon influence to obtain them positions of profit.
"Let me advise you all to make an early start in life. The boy with the manual training and the common school education who can start in life at sixteen or seventeen can leave the boy who goes to college till he is twenty or more, so far behind in the race that he can never catch up. This, however, does not apply to professional life. The other day I was at a gathering of forty successful business men—men in industrial and manufacturing business—and the question arose as to how many were college men. Of the forty only two have been graduated from colleges and the rest of the party, thirty-eight in number, had received only common school educations, and had started in life as poor boys. So I say, as parting advice, start early."
A Fast Bicycle Rider Will often receive painful cuts, sprains or bruises from accidents. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and heal the injury. It's the cyclist's friend.
Cures chafing, chapped hands, sore lips, burns, ulcers and piles. Cure guaranteed. Only 25c. Try it. Told by J.
Jas. Wood & Son, druggists.

Embarrassment appears to be the natural concomitant of matrimony. At least this is true in the incipient stages. Invariably, however, there is a striking contrast between the relative composure of the man and the woman. Both are nervous, but never both at the same time. If they come a week before-hand to make arrangements, she is rattled and he is cool, while on the day of the ceremony she rises to the occasion and he sinks under it. Thus I have never seen a bride who was scared. I have never seen a groom who was not.—Rev. D. M. Steele in Ladies' Home Journal.
Saves Two From Death.
"Our little daughter had an almost fatal attack of whooping cough and bronchitis," writes Mrs. W. K. Havilain, of Armonk, N. Y., "but, when all other remedies failed, we saved her life with Dr. King's New Discovery. Our niece, who had consumption in an advanced stage also used this wonderful medicine and to-day she is perfectly well." Desperate throat and lung diseases yield to Dr. King's New Discovery as to no other medicine on earth. Infalible for coughs and colds. 50c. and $1 bottles guaranteed by J. Jas. Wood & Son. Trial bottles
